Subject: Photography workshop - amended price

Hello ladies!

It's me again. This time I have good news. 😊

I've just had a chat with Sophie, and she doesn't want to have more than ten people in each workshop, mainly because we'll be taking people out to a particular location to create some photography.

But we have changed the structure of the workshop.

Sophie will deliver all workshop parts (lecture, on-location photography, and post-production) in one day rather than in 1.5 days.

This way, we can drop the price from $235 to $210 per participant/per workshop.:-)

Please let me know if you want to go ahead with the workshop at the new price by COB today. Thank you!

Kindest regards,
